The 9th annual Conference on Higher Education Pedagogy is focused on higher education teaching excellence and the scholarship of teaching and learning. The conference showcases the best pedagogical practice and research in higher education today. Sessions address disciplinary and interdisciplinary instructional strategies, outcomes, and research.

The conference continues to grow and attract a community of US and international educators and scholars from an increasing number of institutions. The 2016 conference welcomed 1000+ participants from institutions across the world, including Australia, India, Mexico, Philippines, and South Africa. Attendees report that the diverse and high-quality conference program, organization, and facility combine to promote rich dialogue and exchange that informs and energizes their teaching.

Contact Information
Danielle Lusk, dlusk@vt.edu
Associate Director, CIDER, Virginia Tech

Call for Proposals
Proposals are sought for sessions focused on effective instructional practices and research aimed at improving the quality of teaching and learning in higher education. Four types of conference sessions are invited: Practice Sessions, Research Sessions, Discussion Sessions, and Poster Sessions.

Proposals Due: October 14, 2016

Conference Registration
Non-VT Faculty/Professionals $200.00 $300.00
VT Faculty/Professionals $100.00 $200.00
International Scholars $ 25.00 $ 25.00
Non-VT Students $ 25.00 $ 25.00
VT Students $ 0.00 $ 0.00

I have been to three conferences this month and this one, by far, has the most utility and professional value. – participant

The collegiality among professionals from around the world was impressive. – participant