

Anticipation Guide

Directions: Read the following statements. Check True if you agree with the statement; check False if you disagree.

1. Instructors should always know the answer.

True False

2. Students need content knowledge before they can critically think about the subject matter.

True False

3. Doing activities to promote critical thinking takes away time from learning the content.

True False

4. Questions can guide students toward critical thinking.

True False

5. If I do not know the answer to a problem, I should not present the problem to my students.

True False